The films have captured another famous star in the person of William Faversham who is playing the leading role in "The Right of Way" (from the novel by Sir Gilbert Parker) at the Library theatre today. Adv.

Ladies' night will be observed at the rooms of the Bennington club Friday evening when an excellent program has been provided for members and invited guests. The entertainers who have been secured for the occasion are Alfred N. Best, president of the Brooklyn Choral Art, and the Hoyt Sisters of Manchester. The program will consist of monologues, songs of humor and whistling solos.

Because the affair was poorly advertised there was not a large crowd at Morgan park Saturday afternoon to see the ball game between the New York Bloomer Girls and the Center Rutland club. There were six girls on the Bloomer team and they showed considerable proficiency in handling a baseball. At the bat they were unable to do much except when the ball was thrown straight over the pan with "nothing on it," not even speed.

Miss Anna Tozer of Hoosick Falls is visiting Mrs. S. O. Teft.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Phillips of Troy spent Sunday at C. D. Phillips.

E. D. Wells has newly graded and seeded his extensive lawn.

Miss Dorothy Houghton of Arlington is passing the week end at her home here.

Miss Ruth Loomis leaves Tuesday for a trip to the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon have moved into the rooms over the Mattison and Powers' store.

Wm. Stevens and son George have returned from several days vacation spent in Petersburg.

Mrs. Florence Field of East Arlington is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ralph Gaul of School street.

The Hawks' tenement and Hanlon tenement on upper Main street, have received fresh coats of paint.

Wm. Harrington is recovering from his recent illness. George Griswold of Bennington is caring for him.

Claire Bonyne is erecting a summer house in his rose garden, which will add new beauty to his attractive grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Canfield have returned to Schenectady after a few days visit with Mrs. H. I. Spafford of Bank street.

Mrs. William E. Green of Pownall spent a portion of this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rosier of Mah street.

Miss Eugenia Hutchinson of Bennington was in town Sunday and took part in the morning service at the Baptist church.

The residence, which was taken down and removed from Bennington to Hall Farm is being erected near the driveway to the grove.

Miss Alta M. Tozer, Latin instructor in the Scudder private school in New York city, has been the guest of Mrs. S. O. Teft for a few days.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Loomis will attend the sessions of the Baptist state convention held in Burlington next week.

Sidney Colvin has removed his household goods to Arlington. Ernest Whitman and daughter have moved into the tenement on West street vacated by Mr. Colvin.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosier and family have moved into the rooms above Henry Rosier's store. Mr. Rosier has accepted a position as commercial traveler for a New York firm.

A reception in honor of the teachers in the graded schools will be held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Helen C. Cole, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

AFTER SUFFERING TWO LONG YEARS

Mrs. Aselin Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"After my little one was born I was sick with pains in my sides which the doctors said were caused by inflammation. I suffered a great deal every month and grew very thin. I was under the doctor's care for two long years without any benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try it we got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the third bottle of the Compound I was able to do my housework and today I am strong and healthy again. I will answer letters if anyone wishes to know about my case."—Mrs. JOSEPH ASELIN, 606 Fourth Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy we know for women's ills. If you need such a medicine why don't you try it?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

ESTATE OF ADALINE B. PROVAN
STATE OF VERMONT. The Honorable District Court of Bennington, ss. Probate Court For The District Aforesaid.

To all persons interested in the estate of Adaline B. Provan, late of Bennington, in said District, deceased.

At a Probate Court, holden at Bennington, within and for said District on the 28th day of August, 1915, an instrument purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Adaline B. Provan, late of Bennington, in said District, deceased, was presented to the Court aforesaid, for Probate.

And it is ordered by said Court that the 28th day of September, 1915, at the Probate Office in said Bennington, be assigned for proving said instrument; and that notice thereof be given to all persons concerned, by publishing the order three weeks successively in the Bennington Evening Banner, a newspaper circulating in that vicinity, in said district, previous to the time aforesaid.

THESEFORE, you are hereby notified to appear before said Court, at the time and place aforesaid, and contest the probate of said will if you see cause.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND at Bennington, in said district, this 28th day of August, 1915.

A party of 25 from Bennington enjoyed a clambake at Hunters Rest, Sunday.

Frederick Holton of Rutland passed the week end with his father, L. C. Holton.

Miss Gertrude Cranston of North street has returned from a visit in Rutland.

An auto party of 20 from Waterford held a basket picnic at Clark's woods Sunday.

Mrs. Cora Mont of New York is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Daniel Robinson at Underwood, Old Bennington.

A regular meeting of Walloomsac lodge, N. E. O. P., will be held Tuesday evening followed by a social.

Henry C. Shields, general manager of the Troy Gas company, who has been ill at his home in Old Bennington, is able to resume his duties in Troy.

Charles H. Robinson, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Samuel L. Robinson of Old Bennington, has gone to pass some time on his farm in Mississippi.

Miss Cora Townsend of Buffalo, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. B. Wellington of Old Bennington, assisted in the singing in the volunteer ladies choir at the Old First church Sunday.

Miss Mary Purcell and her guest, Miss Grace Finn of New York, who have been visiting Miss Purcell's mother, Mrs. John Purcell of School street, returned to New York Sunday.

William Faversham in "The Right of Way" is appearing at the Library theatre today, supported by the former Gladys Grey of the Lorne Elwyn Stock Co. This is the great actor's first screen appearance. Adv.

Princess Hassan, formerly Ola Humphrey, an American actress, will depict her third actual adventure in a harem in a two-part drama, "In the Shadow of the Pyramids." Opera House today. Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan R. Kittell of Troy, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Lock low of Lansingburg and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cummings of North street were guests Sunday of Mrs. Anna Robinson of South Shaftsbury.

Victor P. Noyes of Rutland, formerly employed at the Putnam house, who has many friends in Bennington, today entered Riverview academy, a military school at Poughkeepsie. His removal from Rutland will leave a vacancy in the Rutland high school football team this fall, as he played at left half back last fall. He was also head of the Rutland high school basketball team last winter and was a wrestler of some repute. At the Rutland fair last week he threw Kid Harris, who is connected with an athletic show and who claims to be the champion of Pennsylvania. The match went one minute and 20 seconds. Noyes will be candidate for half back on the Riverview football team this fall.
